PENSION OFFICE.

Washington, D.C. Oct 10th 1882

Sir:

Pension claim No. 385,505, of George H. Moulton, late private 1st 3rd Mass Vols, requires medical, or other competent testimony, to show the continuance of malarial fever and results, and the effects of sunstroke, during each year since discharge, in 1865, to 1872, and the degree of disability in consequence thereof. If claimant cannot furnish medical evidence the fact and reasons should be stated by him, under oath.

Very respectfully
W. W. Dudley.
